

Prof. emeritus dr Boris Marović

President of the organizing committee

Biography

Prof. emeritus dr Boris Marović, Founder of SorS Academy, was born in Avre, France. He graduated from the Faculty of Economics at the faculty in Subotica, at the same faculty he received his master's degree in 1977 and his doctorate in 1980 on insurance topics.

He started building his rich work experience in banking, then in agriculture, and devoted 40 of his most creative years to insurance.

He was director of the Risk Community for motor vehicle insurance ZOIL "Vojvodina", assistant general of ZOIL "Novi Sad" (1980), general manager of "Vojvodina re" (1985), deputy director of "Dunava re", director of the main branch of "Vojvodina re" (1991-1995), assistant general director of DDOR "Novi Sad" and director Directorate for reinsurance "Novi Sad re" (1995).

From 2004 to 2006, he was of the Board of Directors of DDOR "Novi Sad".

During his academic career, he passed through all the titles, from assistant professor to full professor at the Faculty of Economics at the Faculty of the University of Novi Sad, as well as a regular professor at the Faculty of Engineering science at the University of Novi Sad and professor emeritus at the Open University Banja Luka.

He taught regular and postgraduate studies at the Faculty of Economics at the Faculty of the University of Novi Sad, at the Faculty of Technical Sciences and the Faculty of service business in Novi Sad, at the Faculty of Economics, University of Podgorica, Niš, Kragujevac, Belgrade, as well as at "BK University",

Prof. emeritus dr Boris Marović

President of the organizing committee

Biography

"Singidunum" University in Belgrade, at the Faculty of European Studies in Belgrade and at the Faculty of Economics Open University in Banja Luka.

He has published 31 books, 11 of which independently and 20 with co-authors, and more than 160 professional and scientific papers in the field of insurance and reinsurance, transport and freight forwarding. He was appointed by the decision of the Federal Secretariat for Development and Science in 2001 for an expert in the field of insurance, transport and forwarding.

Additionally to an academic and professional career, he was also long-time sports worker - member of the board of football club "Vojvodina" from Novi Sad a delegate of the SFRY Football Association.

Prof. Emeritus Dr. Boris Marović lives and works in Novi Sad.