

Tatjana Komnenić

Member of the organizing committee

Biography

Tatjana Komnenić is a highly experienced professional in the insurance and reinsurance industry, with a strong background in risk management and underwriting. She currently serves as the Head of Risk Management at Dunav Re, a position she has held since 2023, where she is responsible for overseeing and implementing risk management strategies.

Her career in reinsurance spans over two decades, starting at Dunav Re in 1999, where she worked as an Underwriter for eight years. She then moved to UNIQA Insurance Group, where she specialized as an Expert in Reinsurance Business from 2007 to 2012. Following this, she took on the role of Head of Reinsurance at AXA from 2013 to 2014. In 2015, she returned to Dunav Re as a Member of the Executive Board, a role she held until 2023 before transitioning to her current position.

Tatjana holds a University Degree in Economics – Banking, Finance, and Insurance from the University of Belgrade. She is fluent in English and is known for her strong communication skills, reliability, and ability to work both independently and as part of a team.

With her extensive experience and deep expertise in reinsurance and risk management, Tatjana plays a crucial role in the industry, contributing to the stability and growth of the organizations she has worked with.
